FOREWORD.

To Members of the Poultry Clubs:

This record is being given you for your use in keeping an account of the work you do so you can see from time to time just how you are progressing and how you can improve your future work. Should you not understand each part of your report, ask your parents, teacher, or county agent to help you.

It is important that you make all records as soon as the work is done, so that they will be accurate. Also try to keep your records as clean and neat as possible. The most successful members in all club work are those who keep complete reports of all their work.

Sincerely yours,

HARRY M. LAMON,
Senior Animal Husbandman
In Poultry Investigations.

NOTICE.

These reports and the compositions written by members of the poultry clubs will be judged according to neatness, accuracy, completeness, and best judgment as shown by method of management. In each case the member's age, previous experience, and the conditions under which he or she is working will receive careful consideration, so that no one member will have an advantage over another.
